

Másfél

Masfel recently went through a creative reformation and this Hungarian band, which was originally founded in 1991, now plays their unique style in a freshly new way. A band not to be pigeonholed play a unique mixture of electro guitar pop somewhere in between jazz, drum n bass, dub, jazz, acid-jazz and modern rock. The musicians are guitarist Karen Arutyunyan, drummer Zoltan Ujj, bassist Peter Sabak and Levente Lukacs on saxophone. They are regularly invited to perform at festivals in and around Hungary and have already graced the stages of Sziget Festival (main stage, Wan2 stage). They have also performed to many sold out crowds at international festivals and clubs throughout Hungary and other European countries including France, Switzerland, Holland, Germany, Spain, Russia, Slovakia and the Czech Republic.

They have composed soundtracks for theater, movie and computer games. They released their latest album, En Garde! at the end of 2005 on which they worked with electronics and vocals as a novelty. Featuring in one of the songs the vocalist of Deti Picasso(RU), Gaya Arutjunjan and on the other, the illustrious MC, Fuevlas Gamma says some strange words...

Web: www.masfel.hu

Mail: masfel@masfel.hu

Masfel are:

Karen Arutyunyan – guitar

Zoltan Ujj – drums

Peter Sabak – bass

Levente Lukacs – saxophone

Discography:

En garde! 2006 CD

Ballast 2003 - Live CD

Moni 2001 - Remix CD

Radiobaratno (Radiogirlfriendly) 2000 - Remix maxi CD

Angyaltojás (Angel's Egg) 2000 - Audio CD/CD-ROM, MC

Katasztrofamamor (Flush of Catastrophe) 1998 - Audio CD/CD-ROM, MC

Villamos (Tram) 1997 - Audio CD/CD-ROM

Viperagarzon (Viperflat) 1996 - CD, MC

Kinai natha (Chinese flu) 1994 - Live CD, MC

Mese (Tale) 1993 – MC